

Welcome to Jury Service in the United States District Court

This booklet contains some of the information that will be covered in your orientation. Please keep it for reference.

Jury service is not only a duty of citizenship it is a privilege. Based upon responses to exit questionnaires, we know that most people find their jury service to be interesting and worthwhile. We hope you will, too.

“...(U)nless you are willing to participate in a democracy by serving, you cannot ensure the life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness...”

Lindy Boggs
former U. S. Representative from Louisiana

LAWS GOVERNING JURY SERVICE

Any person summoned for jury service in U. S. District Court (federal court) is required to report as directed unless excused by the Court. Reasons for excuse are set forth in the Jury Plan for the Random Selection of Grand and Petit Jurors, a copy of which is available for inspection in the clerk's office of the U. S. District Court. The grounds for excuse are limited as jury service is an acknowledged duty of citizenship, and our form of government requires individuals to serve as jurors when called.

A person summoned for jury service who fails to appear as directed can be ordered by the Court to appear and show cause for failure to comply with the summons. A person who fails to show good cause to the Court for noncompliance with a summons may be fined not more than $100, or imprisoned not more than three days, or both.

Congress has provided for significant statutory protection of employment for federal jurors. An employer is prohibited from discharging, intimidating, threatening, or coercing any employee by reason of the employee's jury service or scheduled attendance for such service. An employer violating this requirement is subject to (1) liability for damages to the employee, (2) an injunction from further such violations and to provide appropriate relief, including the reinstatement of such employee, and (3) a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 for each violation as to each employee. District courts have been given jurisdiction over civil actions brought for the protection of jurors' employment rights, and a mechanism has been provided for the appointment of counsel for jurors claiming violations by their employers and whose claims are found to have possible merit.

TERM OF SERVICE

You will be “on call” as a juror for 4 months (beginning on the first day you report). Over the course of the four month term you’ll receive notices in the mail directing you to report for a jury selection on a specific date. These notices will be mailed to you one week in advance.

You will not be here every day or every week. You will only report when notified, probably one to two times per month.

PAYMENT FOR JURY SERVICE

Attendance Fee: $40.00 per day

Parking Reimbursement: $8.00 per day

Mileage Reimbursement: Mileage is reimbursed for your round-trip mileage from your home to the Federal Building. This rate changes from time to time. You will be advised of the rate that is in effect during your term of service.

You will be paid for each day of attendance whether or not you are selected to sit on the jury. The court cannot pay you if you fail to call the Jury Information Line and report when you are not supposed to.

If you are employed you are entitled by law to receive your regular pay from your employer minus the $40.00 attendance fee. If you need further information regarding this provision, please request it from the jury administrator when you report for service.

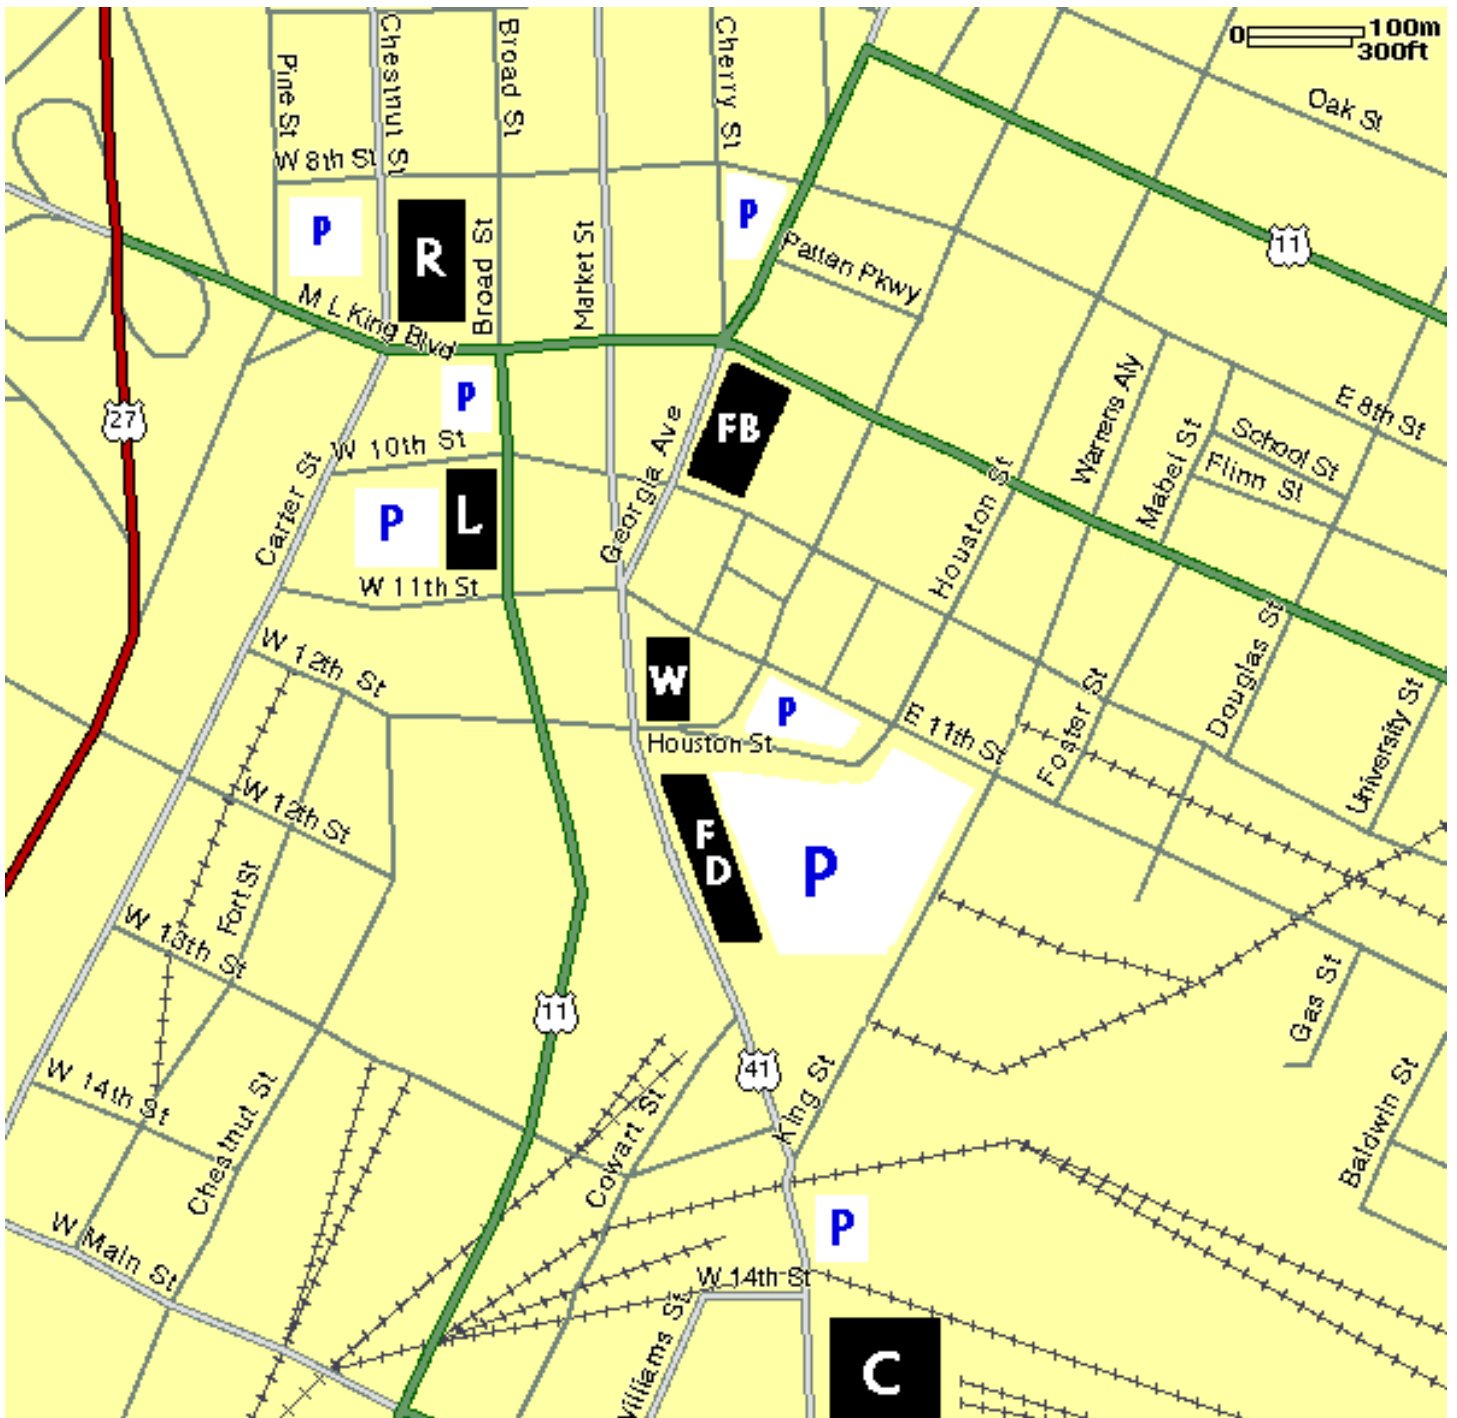

If you are an employee of the United States government you are not paid an attendance fee but you will still be reimbursed for mileage and parking.

If your employer wants verification of your attendance for payroll records, please see the jury administrator or courtroom deputy for an attendance slip.

Juror paychecks are prepared approximately every two weeks and mailed directly to you at home. If your address changes during your term of service please advise the jury administrator. If you have a question regarding your juror payment you should contact the jury administrator in the Chattanooga office.

The IRS requires that the $40.00 attendance fee be included on your tax return (not the mileage and parking reimbursements). The court does not issue an IRS Form 1099 unless a juror is paid $600.00 or more in attendance fees in one calendar year.

PARKING

The Federal Building does not have a parking lot. There are, however, several lots within just a few blocks. If you park at the Chattanooga Choo Choo you can ride a free shuttle bus up to the corner of M. L. King and Broad. From there it is just a short walk to the Federal Building at the corner of M. L. King and Georgia. Parking lots are marked with a P on the map above. WARNING: if you park at a parking meter you'll get a parking ticket which will be your responsibility to pay.
